EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Governance, Justice, Law and Order Sector (GJLOS) consists of fourteen (14) sub-sectors, namely Interior and Coordination of National Government; Office of the Attorney General and Department of Justice; The Judiciary; Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC); Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions (ODPP); Commission for the Implementation of the Constitution (CIC); Office of the Registrar of Political Parties (RPP); Witness Protection Agency (WPA); Kenya National Commission on Human Rights (KNCHR); Independent Electoral and Boundaries Commission (IEBC); Judicial Service Commission (JSC); National Police Service Commission (NPSC); National Gender and Equality Commission (NGEC) and Independent Policing Oversight Authority (IPOA).

The sector has nine (9) Semi-Autonomous Government Agencies (SAGAs) which undertake specialized functions for the sector.

To achieve the sector's policy objectives, the sub-sectors undertake key mandates as stipulated in the Constitution 2010 and Executive Order No. 2 of 2013 on the Organization of the Government of Kenya.

These sub-sectors play an important role in providing a stable environment for social, economic and political development of the country as outlined in the MTP II (2013-2017) of Kenya Vision 2030. Specifically; the role includes provision of security, prosecution services, management of electoral processes, ensuring good governance and accountability in public resources, registration and regulation of political parties, facilitate and oversee constitution implementation, protecting and promoting Human Rights, rehabilitation, reintegration and resettlement of custodial and non-custodial offenders, providing migration services, maintaining law and order, judicial & legal services and promotion of cohesion, transparency and integrity.

In carrying out its mandate, the Sector is guided by the following Vision and Mission:

- Vision: A secure, just, cohesive, democratic, accountable, transparent and conducive environment for a globally competitive and prosperous Kenya.
- Mission: To ensure efficient and effective leadership which is accountable, create a secure environment, establish and strengthen governance institutions, for the achievement of socio-economic and political development.

Expenditure analysis of the for the period 2010/11 - 2012/13 shows that the total allocation for recurrent has progressively increased by 20.2% from Kshs. 58,741 million in 2010/11 to Kshs 73,610 million in 2011/12 and by 6.6% to Kshs. 78,775 million in 2012/13. Development expenditure grew by 11.8% from Kshs 7,841 million in the 2010/11 to Kshs.8,889 million in 2011/12 and by 10.7% to Kshs. 9,956 million.

The total pending bills for the sector during the FY 2012/13 stood at Kshs. 7,262.3 million compared to Kshs458.74 million in 2010/11. Out of this, Kshs. 4,699.3 Million is due to lack of budgetary provision while Kshs. 2,663 Million is due to lack of liquidity. It is noted that the bulk of the pending bills was due to lack of budgetary provision was incurred by IEBC stood at Kshs 4,641 million.

During the MTEF review period (2010/11 - 2012/13), the sector accomplished notable achievements in the implementation of key flagship Programmes including agenda 1V of the National Accord, constitutional implementation, provision of security, making of laws and ensuring good governance and rule of laws and dispensation of justice.

During the 2014/15 Financial year the GJLOS sector will require funding to finance its programmes, projects and activities amounting to Kshs. 224,302 million up from Kshs. 126,153 million in the current financial year 2013/14. The resource requirement is projected to increase in 2015/16 and 2016/17 financial years to Kshs. 234,225 and Kshs. 249,125 million respectively. The resources allocated in this sector for Financial Year 2014/15 is Kshs. 135,065 million.

The GJLO sector has cross-sectoral linkages with all the other MTEF sectors whose services and outputs contribute to the achievements of its outputs and outcomes. The sector further interacts with other public and private sector institutions whose mandates either fall within this sector's mandate or is dependent on the sector's contribution. To achieve the sectoral goals and objectives and ensure optimal resource utilization, intra and inter-sectoral linkages need to be harmonized and strengthened. This is critical to sustaining the sector's momentum in discharging its mandate.

Some of the emerging issues which the sector needs to take into consideration include increased and complex crime (cyber), increased cases of alcohol and drug abuse especially among the youth leading to increased incidences of crime, an increase in the demand for the provision of legal aid services by the government to the citizens, an increase in threats and acts of terrorism and procurement threshold which requires for the sector to comply with the 30 per cent procurement threshold, for women and youth.

The sector faced various challenges in the implementation of its mandate. These challenges include the lengthy and complex processes involved in the development and/or harmonization of key policies and laws for the implementation of the Constitution, fragmented provision of legal aid services hampering access to justice, inadequate public awareness and/or misconceptions about the existence and functions of newly established institutions, inadequate funding from the Exchequer, slow pace of decentralization of functions to the counties, due to limited financial and technical resources, inadequate capacities and resources to adopt technological advancements in order to improve efficiency and effectiveness in service delivery, weak interagency cooperation and cross-agency collaboration across the sector, inadequate internal capacities and resources to address cross-cutting issues such as HIV and AIDS, gender, PWDs, equality and non-discrimination, drug and substance abuse within the sector have presented a challenge in addressing these issues, corruption and cross-border insecurity.

Drawing from the experiences and lessons learnt from the past MTEF process, there is need to trade-off funds within the sub-sector to achieve greater impact in public expenditure framework especially with funds allocated to Development Votes. Equally, the resource allocation criteria should be strictly adhered to and guided by the sector reports to optimize on impact of the MTEF process.

Some of the critical and priority sector areas that require adequate funding in the current MTEF period include operationalization of the Kenya Citizens and Foreign Nationals Management Service (KCFNMS), retooling and modernization of the policing services, implementation of the constitution, prosecution services, modernization, automation and decentralization of key subsector's programs to all counties, registration, regulation and funding of political parties, operationalization of witness protection programmes, entrenchment of democracy and promotion and mainstreaming of human rights, gender equality and non-discrimination across all subsectors.

For the sector to achieve its objectives, the following issues need to be addressed: capacity enhancement, budgetary allocation enhancement, continued public sector reforms, increased public awareness, partnerships and stakeholders engagement, decentralization/devolution of services and constitutional implementation.

CHAPTER 4

4.0 CROSS-SECTOR LINKAGES, EMERGING ISSUES AND CHALLENGES

4.1 Cross-Sector Linkages

The GJLO sector has cross-sectoral links with other sectors whose services and outputs contribute to the achievements of its outputs and outcomes. The sectors are: General Economic, and Commercial Affairs (GECA); National Security (NS); Health; Education, Energy, Infrastructure and ICT (EII); Public Administration and International Relations (PAIR); Social Protection, Culture and Recreation (SPCR); Environmental Protection, Water and Natural Resources (EPWNR), and Agriculture, Rural and Urban Development (ARUD). The sector further interacts with other public and private sector institutions whose mandates either fall within this sector's mandate or are dependent on the sector's contribution.

To achieve the sectoral goals and objectives and ensure optimal resource utilization, intra and inter-sectoral linkages need to be harmonized and strengthened. This is critical to sustaining the sector's momentum in discharging its mandate.

4.1.1 General Economic and Commercial Affairs (GECA) Sector

The GJLOS provides security, data on crime, work permits, visas, IDs, passports, registration of companies, and handles dispute resolution. These facilitate an enabling environment to trade and investment, for economic growth and development. On the other hand, the GECA sector contributes to the achievement of the GJLO sector by creating opportunities for trade, industry, tourism and investment both nationally and regionally, particularly for the vulnerable groups of the society who may otherwise fall victim to drug abuse, crime and other forms of lawlessness.

4.1.2 National Security (NS) Sector

The GJLOS supports NS Sector in its efforts of providing and improving the Country's security through the administration of justice. The NS Sector provides intelligence information and national security which are a requisite for GJLO Sector to deliver its mandate.

4.1.3 Health Sector

The GJLO sector supports the Health sector which is in charge of the development of health policies, laws and regulations, by enforcing the same in line with the Constitution. The sector recognizes that a healthy population is critical for economic growth and development. The sector will continue to support the Health sector initiatives towards sustaining the health gains.

4.1.4 Education Sector

The Education sector is key in generating the skills needed to facilitate the GJLO sector. The GJLO sector is also critical to the Education sector in terms of facilitation of, and adherence to laws within the Education sector.

4.1.5 Energy, Infrastructure and ICT (EII) Sector

GJLO sector is embracing modern technology to improve on the effectiveness and efficiency in service delivery. This calls for the implementation of the ICT policy and employment of ICT innovative strategies which require collaboration with EII sector. For GJLO sector to implement its ICT goals, it requires infrastructural and technical support from the EII sector. Further, the GJLO will work closely with the EII sector to ensure adherence to regulations on accurate and objective reporting and educating the public on legal issues.

4.1.6 Public Administration and International Relations (PAIR) Sector

The management and accountability of public affairs and resources is the responsibility of PAIR sector in collaboration with other stakeholders across the sectors. The PAIR is also involved in international relations, through negotiation for peaceful coexistence within and across our borders. The GJLO sector facilitates PAIR sector through supporting leadership and integrity in governance and management of public affairs and resources. The development of policies, laws and other anti-corruption measures and strategies fall under the jurisdiction of GJLO sector. The sector also facilitates the recovery of misappropriated public resources. Furthermore, it is also responsible for enforcing international laws.

The PAIR sector is also in charge of promoting private public partnerships (PPP) in addressing pertinent national and sectoral development issues. The GJLO sector has adopted this strategy in service delivery.

The PAIR sector also promotes the rights of women and youth. As the sector in charge of implementing and overseeing the realization of the Constitution, the GJLO sector will facilitate the implementation of the Articles in the Constitution relating to gender equality, human rights, and freedom from discrimination.

4.1.7 Social Protection, Culture and Recreation (SPCR) Sector

The SPCR sector's mandate addresses labor and social security issues. The GJLO sector has a role in facilitating the development and implementation of appropriate labor and social security policies, laws and regulations, in line with the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

SPCR sector supports positive cultural practices and recreational activities. These initiatives contribute towards the enhancement of law and order, through the prevention of alcohol and drug abuse which has been linked to crime; and the rehabilitation of children who have been in conflict with Law.

4.1.8 Environmental Protection, Water and Natural Resources (EPWNR) Sector

GJLO sector supports EPWNR sector through facilitating the development and enforcement of policies and laws necessary for environmental protection, water and natural resource management. The EPWNR sector ensures provision of safe water, effective sewage disposal, management of solid waste, and environmental conservation.

4.1.9 Agriculture Rural and Urban Development (ARUD) Sector

The GJLO sector plays a significant role in the achievement of the mandate of the ARUD which deals with agriculture, livestock, fisheries, land, and urban development issues. The sector provides security, and facilitates governance and legal issues for the realization of this sector's mandate. On the other hand, this sector facilitates the GJLO sector with land, housing and office space for operations and programmes.

4.2 EMERGING ISSUES

Crime:

Crime has become more complex and has extended to sophisticated forms of cyber crime. There is need to re-train all stakeholders within the sector on modern international security approaches, techniques and equipment.

Alcohol and drug abuse:

Increased cases of alcohol and drug abuse especially among the youth, has led to increased incidences of crime.

Demand for legal services:

There is an increase in the demand for the provision of legal aid services by the government to the citizens.

Terrorism:

There has been an increase in threats and acts of terrorism.

Procurement Thresholds:

There is a new requirement for the sector to comply with the 30 per cent procurement threshold for women and youth.

4.3 CHALLENGES

Implementation of the Constitution:

The lengthy and complex processes involved in the development and/or harmonization of key policies and laws have delayed the implementation of the Constitution. High levels of public expectations about the provisions of the Constitution, and public perceptions about the pace of implementation have therefore impacted upon public confidence in the sector's efforts. Certain key institutions to support governance, justice, law and order, are also yet to be set up, in line with the Constitution.

Inadequate legal aid services:

The fragmented provisions of legal aid services, and limited involvement of the state in the provision of legal aid to the public, have hampered access to justice.

Limited public awareness:

Inadequate public awareness and/or misconceptions about the existence and functions of newly established institutions within the sector have resulted in sub-optimal utilization of the services from these institutions.

Budgetary Issues:

Inadequate funding from the Exchequer has impacted on sector staffing levels, with negative implications for the sector's ability to deliver effective and efficient services. At the same time, the cost of implementing programmes has increased as a function of the demands of the Constitution and the need to decentralize programmes. In certain instances, the escalation of the costs of implementing projects whose timelines inordinately exceed the initial planned implementation period, also result in resource challenges.

Insufficient government office space:

Due to the lack of government facilities, sub-sectors have to spend significant financial resources to lease office space, with negative implications for other operational and programmed activities.

Decentralization of operations:

The slow pace of decentralization of functions to the counties, due to limited financial and technical resources, has affected efforts towards improving efficient access to services, and effective collaboration with county governments.

Capacity constraints to the use of technology:

Inadequate capacities and resources have hindered the sector's ability to adopt technological advancements in order to improve efficiency and effectiveness in service delivery.

Weak Collaboration:

Weak inter-agency cooperation and cross-agency collaboration across the sector, as a result of inadequate understandings of sub-sector mandates, have resulted in under-utilization of the comparative advantages of sub-sectors.

Inadequate regional and international cooperation and collaboration strategies have also impacted upon sector efforts to respond to issues with regional and international dimensions.

Cross-cutting issues:

Inadequate internal capacities and resources to address cross-cutting issues such as Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) and Acquired Immuno Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), gender equality and non-discrimination, drug and substance abuse within the sector have presented a challenge in addressing these issues. Sections of the sector also face challenges in recruiting women and Persons With Disabilities (PWDs), and this has implications for realizing the constitutional provisions on equality and non-discrimination.

Inadequate data:

The sector has yet to put in place mechanisms to facilitate the collection, collation and dissemination of key data and information, so as to inform efforts of stakeholders on all matters relating to the sector.

Corruption levels:

Corruption remains a challenge to the effectiveness of reforms and interventions undertaken by the sector.

Porous Borders:

Porous borders continue to pose a security challenge to the GJLOS, in terms of illegal firearms and the unregulated high influx of refugees into the country.

Slow pace of reforms:

Differences in the rate of implementing reforms between the GJLOS sub-sectors, has affected overall reforms within the sector.

CHAPTER FIVE:

5.0 CONCLUSION

The GJLOS sector is made up of 14 sub-sectors with different but mutually complementing mandates which contribute to the economic, social and political development of the country as envisaged in Vision 2030 and the Constitution.

During the MTEF review period (2010/11 - 2012/13), the sector accomplished notable achievements in the implementation of key flagship Programmes including agenda 1V, constitutional implementation, provision of security, making of laws and ensuring good governance.

For the Sector to successfully implement its programmes and projects it will largely rely on the adequacy of allocation by the government and timely release of the Exchequer. In realizing this, the sector's budget allocations should at all time be informed by the Sector's budget which is drawn from the sub sector's strategic plan and MTP.

Dynamics in our operational challenges like terrorism coupled with continuous underfunding, causes a huge back log in delivery and implementation of sectors' mandates, hence the need to enhance budgetary allocation.

Though the sector has strived to utilize its allocated resources to ensure better services are provided, it is noted that in the previous years, the sector has been underfunded though progressively improving, compared to the sector's projected resource requirements. This has greatly affected the sub-sectors in provision of services and delivery of their mandate.

Generally, the adoption of the programme-based budgeting has proved a useful approach towards mainstreaming of budget preparation and focusing on results. Budgetary support towards the public reform agenda, performance management, and institutionalization of service delivery charters, automation and modernization of systems has improved service delivery. The approach has been largely inclusive, participatory and reinforcing to budgetary monitoring functions in the sector. This has ensured equitable distribution of resources based on the subsector requirements and National Treasury guidelines.

Drawing from the experiences and lessons learnt from the past MTEF process, there is need to trade-off funds within the sector to achieve greater impact in public expenditure framework especially with funds allocated to Development Votes. Equally, the resource allocation criteria should be strictly adhered to and guided by the sector reports to optimize on impact of the MTEF process.

Some of the critical and priority sector areas that require adequate funding in the current MTEF period include: operationalization of the newly created Kenya Citizens and Foreign Nationals Management Service (KCFNMS), Policing Services, implementation of the constitution, prosecution services, modernization, automation and decentralization of key sub-sector's programs to all counties, registration, regulation and funding of political parties, operationalization of witness protection programmes , entrenchment of democracy and promotion and mainstreaming of human rights, gender equality and non-discrimination across all sub-sectors.

There is also need to change from reliance in donor driven funding to the exchequer as such reliance on donor funding has proved to be unpredictable and unsustainable. In conclusion, the sector resource envelope will have to be scaled up for the country to achieve the aspirations set out under the political pillar of the Kenya vision 2030.
